Advanced Diploma of Program Management BSB61215

Aim of the program

This qualification aims to equip participants with the skills and knowledge for effective leadership of multiple projects, programs of projects or large, complex projects. This specialist qualification covers the competencies required for the initiation, planning, execution, and leadership of programs of projects within organisations, and the realisation of benefits.

Learning outcomes

On completion of the program you should be able to:

- integrate a number of projects to achieve planned business outcomes and value enhancements
- ensure there is effective governance and sponsorship in place to facilitate the conversion of business strategy into the realisation of benefits
- plan the selection and development of staff to meet the requirements of a significant program of works
- ensure effective identification of uncertainty and ambiguity, and develop strategies for management of risk across projects, programs, operations and portfolio
- develop and monitor program schedules and budgets to meet the organisation's business plan
- provide leadership in the identification, assessment and management of risk and opportunities
- ensure effective communication between the various stakeholders in the program of works
- oversee the management of strategic procurement and contracts
- mitigate the more complex problems encountered by project teams
- manage the client and stakeholders, and their expectations.

Structure of the program

There are twelve (12) units of competency in this qualification and all must be successfully completed in order to achieve the Advanced Diploma of Program Management BSB61215. The program employs a mentored assessment approach, incorporating individual interviews with your assessor, as well as a combination of print and electronic course material. An outline of the structure for delivery and assessment is provided below.

Text and Resources

It is recommended that students purchase the text book 'Program Management' by Michel Thiry (2015). You will be provided with access to the Project Management learning resources, and the learning resource for Develop and use emotional intelligence, as these provide valuable and relevant reading material in support of the units of competency. Guidance on sections of the text book and other resources that will assist your preparation for assessment is provided below, and provided in each separate course.

Assessment

Details of the assessment requirements for each course are available in the Assessment section for each course on my.unep. Details of the units of competency in which you are enrolled are available online by clicking the links below if accessing an electronic version of this course overview.

Units of competency are achieved as assessment tasks are successfully completed, and all must be completed to be awarded the Advanced Diploma of Program Management BSB61215. If you withdraw before you complete the required number of units of competency, you will receive a Statement of Attainment for those competencies you have successfully completed.

Information on how to submit your work for assessment is provided in the Assessment section of each Course online. Suggestions for managing your study and assessment tasks is also available in the additional support document 'Studying with UNE Partnerships'. It is recommended you access and read that resource in addition to this Program Overview. Should you be unsure of what is required of you, contact your student support team.

Accreditation and recognition

The Advanced Diploma of Program Management BSB61215 in which you are enrolled is a nationally recognised and accredited program. It is listed on the national register of programs and is placed at level 6 on the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF).

The competencies gained through successfully completing this program are cross-industry and nationally recognised. You may exit from this qualification at any time with a Statement of Attainment for any units of competency successfully completed to that point.

Furthermore, depending on circumstances related to the type and degree of credit sought, successful achievement of the Advanced Diploma of Program Management BSB61215 receives advanced standing into awards at the University of New England (UNE), subject to eligibility. Graduates with 6 years' work experience can apply for entry into the UNE Graduate Certificate of Management and claim 12 credit points (2 units) of Advanced Standing upon enrolment.

The Project Management Institute (PMI) has accredited UNE Partnerships as a Registered Education Provider and the Advanced Diploma of Program Management is eligible for Category A Professional Development Units.

The Australian Institute of Project Management (AIPM) has recognised this course as meeting its guidelines for professionalism in training and education. Should you wish to seek Certified Practising

Project Manager (CPPM) or higher (CPSPM or CPPD) status, a gap assessment by an endorsed AIPM assessor (many of the UNE Partnerships assessors are AIPM assessors) will be required to cover the minor differences between the two sets of competencies. AIPM certification provides professional peer group recognition of people competent and skilled in best practice project management.

Study workload

The nominal duration of your enrolment in the Advanced Diploma of Program Management BSB61215 is 18 months. The time it takes you to achieve the competencies required will depend on the amount of relevant learning and experience you have. Students with a moderate level of relevant learning and experience should be able to complete the program requirements in about 10 hours a week a week of self-directed workplace and individual study over the 18 month period, as outlined in your study plan. Inexperienced students will likely require more time.

You have up to 18 months from enrolment to complete the Advanced Diploma of Program Management BSB61215. If you fall behind in your schedule, you should contact UNE Partnerships to discuss your progress. An extension to the study period may be available, however additional fees may apply.

Third party arrangements

UNE Partnerships has not entered into any subcontracting arrangements for the delivery of training and assessment in this qualification.
