Women in Sport Leadership Program

Aim of the program

This program is designed to build skills and confidence in women to pursue leadership roles within their chosen sport and explore more aspirational career opportunities. Ultimately, this will elevate the profile of women in leadership positions as role models and decision makers in their chosen field.

Learning outcomes

On completion of the program you should be able to:

- Understand your own and others emotional intelligence and leadership style
- Manage elite women athletes by understanding motivational triggers and inspirational triggers
- Communicate effectively and apply communication strategies in a variety of situations
- Interact with the media professionally and confidently
- Manage change, and bring about innovation
- Understand how to use data effectively.

Structure of the program

There are twelve (12) units of competency in this qualification and all must be successfully completed in order to achieve the Certificate IV in Leadership and Management BSB40520. If you enrol in a Skill Set, or selected units from the qualification, successful completion of your study would lead to the issuing of a Statement of Attainment for those units completed.

The program employs a mixed delivery mode, incorporating facilitator-led workshops, as well as a combination of print and electronic course material. An outline of the structure for delivery and assessment is provided below.

Table 1: Course structure

Units of competency are achieved as assessment tasks are successfully completed, and all must be completed to be awarded a Statement of Attainment. If you withdraw before you complete the required number of units of competency, you will receive a Statement of Attainment for those competencies you have successfully completed.

Information on how to submit your work for assessment is provided in the Assessment section of each Course online. Suggestions for managing your study and assessment tasks is also available in the additional support document 'Studying with UNE Partnerships'. It is recommended you access and read that resource in addition to this Program Overview. Should you be unsure of what is required of you, contact your student support team.

Accreditation and recognition

The competencies gained through successfully completing this program are cross-industry and nationally recognised. You may exit from this qualification at any time with a Statement of Attainment for any units of competency successfully completed to that point.

Study workload

The nominal duration of your enrolment in the Women in Sports Leadership Program is 20 weeks. The time it takes you to achieve the competencies required will depend on the amount of relevant learning and experience you have. Students with a moderate level of relevant learning and experience should be able to complete the program requirements in about 5 hours a week of self-directed workplace and individual study over the 20-week period, as outlined in your study plan. Inexperienced students will likely require more time.

You have up to 20 weeks from enrolment to complete the Women in Sports Leadership Program. If you fall behind in your schedule, you should contact UNE Partnerships to discuss your progress. An extension to the study period may be available, however additional fees may apply.

Third party arrangements

UNE Partnerships has not entered into any subcontracting arrangements for the delivery of training and assessment in this qualification.
